SOCIAL EVENTS

THE PYTHIAN SISTERS.

The Pythian Sisters held their regular business meeting last night. Initiation of candidates was the most important part of the meeting. The next meeting will be held Thursday, April 11.

HOMER GUARDS.

Sheridan Home, H. G. of A., held an interesting meeting last night, which was well attended. Eight applications for membership were balloted on, and preparations were made for going in a contest to get more members. The sides were chosen, one being called Red and the other Blue. Charles Ingold was chosen captain of the Reds and Oscar Benson, captain of the Blues. The side getting the least number of members will give a banquet to the others. State Deputy P. D. Lily was present at this meeting and gave out the prizes for the last contest. Charles Christwell received the first gent's prize, and Mrs. Nancy White, the first ladies' prize. Friday night they will give a dance in East hall. The music will be furnished by Emerson's orchestra. All members of H. G. of A. and friends are invited.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

Canton camp, No. 100, W. O. W., held a meeting last night which was well attended. Arrangements were made for a social to be held soon. After the regular meeting a smoker and social session was held. Cards were played and refreshments served. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 11.

CATHOLIC FORESTERS.

Canton court, No. 1258, Catholic Order of Foresters, held regular meeting last night in the East block. Arrangements were completed for the dance which will be given Monday, April 1, in East hall. All members and friends are invited to attend. Their next meeting will be held Thursday, April 11.

ANTI-DULL CARE.

The Anti-Dull Care Social club held a regular business meeting Thursday evening, after which they had a "hard time" social. Mrs. Clara Miller received the first ladies' prize for the best make-up, and Robert Hartung received the first gentleman's prize for the best men's make-up. A banquet followed, in which Mrs. Villita Miller gave several piano solos. The club orchestra furnished music for the evening. Dancing was indulged in, and refreshments were served. The next social will be held Thursday evening, April 11.

JR. O. U. A. M. ANNIVERSARY.

Patrick Henry council, Jr. O. U. A. M., No. 84, celebrated its 17th anniversary last evening in Hauser hall. There were about 350 people in attendance. An address was made by H. Ross Ake on "The Object and Principles of the Order." Dancing and progressive pedro were indulged in, and light refreshments were served. An orchestra directed by J. Hershel Miller, furnished excellent music. The dancing was under the supervision of Prof. M. V. H. Johnson. Guests were present from Massillon, Pittsburg, Cleveland and Akron. The affair continued until after midnight. The winners of the prizes in progressive pedro were F. E. Marberger, gentleman's first prize; Mrs. Florence Barth, ladies' first prize; R. D. Armstrong received the gentleman's booby prize; Mrs. Ella Jackson, the ladies' booby prize.

Verdict of Not Guilty.

Carmel, N. Y., March 22.—After 40 minutes' deliberation the jury in the case of Jennie Burch, the 15-year-old girl who poisoned a baby left in her care, returned a verdict of "Not guilty on account of being insane." Justice Mills immediately committed the girl to the state asylum for the criminal insane at Matteawan.

TWENTY-SIX WERE KILLED IN WRECK

Colton, Cal., March 22.—Twenty-six people are known to have been killed in the derailment of the westbound Southern Pacific passenger train from New Orleans, near this town this afternoon. The injured number 100 and several may die. Ten of the fourteen coaches of the train which ran into an open switch, were ditched, four being smashed to pieces. Most of the killed were Italian laborers bound from New Orleans to San Francisco. Eighteen bodies were removed, and eight are visible under the wreckage. George L. Sharp of Muncie, Ind., was killed. The engineer, C. E. Worthington, and Fireman Victor Cribb were badly scalded by the escaping steam. The baggage man was killed. All of the hospitals in Colton are filled with the injured.

The escape of Florence Roberts theatrical company was miraculous. Their special car was thrown from the track, both ends crushed, but only two of the company were injured.

PERSONAL.

Dr. Harry A. March, of 625 West Tuscarawas street, returned home Thursday from New York where he took a special post-graduate course in diseases of children.

Wilson Chamberlain, of 605 North Market street, a student at Wooster University, is home for a ten days' vacation. He has almost completely recovered from a severe attack of tonsillitis with which he has been confined to his bed for the past week.

Practice Game of Ball.

If weather permits, instead of the Simpson's baseball team holding a business meeting, they will play the Notnacs a practice game on the Danner grounds. Gardner, ex-member of the Notnacs, now a member of the Simpson team, will pitch for the Notnacs, and will endeavor to defeat his new teammates. Billinsky, Wetzel and Johnson will pitch for the Simpsons. All members are requested to report.

Stocked in Canton.

J. B. Fox, superintendent of commissary on W. & L. E. east of Toledo, has furnished a Chicago W. & L. E. diner to be put on a special train out of Pittsburg, Sunday morning, in this city. The car was completely stocked to serve 100 people for a three days' trip. On return this car will be again stocked here for the "Syria" special, a trip of 7,600 miles.

Returns With Wealth.

John Alexander, of Kendall, Montana, formerly of this city, who has been in Montana twenty-four years, is visiting relatives in this locality. Mr. Alexander struck it rich in the mining industry realizing a profit of $150,000 out of one deal.
